

Internship/ Paralegalship – FAQs

1. How can I apply for an internship or paralegalship at Resolüt Partners?

Internship applications can only be submitted via our official website. We do not accept applications via email.

2. What qualifications or skills are required to apply?

The internship is open to law students with a keen interest in corporate law.

3. What does the selection process involve?

The selection process consists of two stages:

i. CV + Video Review.

- a. Candidates are required to submit a short video introduction along with their CV.
- b. The video should be recorded in front of a plain white background, in formal attire, and should have clear audio and lighting.
- c. The video must be concise and professional, giving the selection team a sense of your personality and communication skills. It is recommended that you speak naturally rather than reading from a prepared script.
- d. While it is not mandatory, candidates may speak about a recent development / topic relevant to our practise areas.

ii. Personal Interview.

4. How will I be notified if I am selected?

Selected candidates will receive a confirmation email containing joining dates, reporting details, and pre-joining formalities.

5. Can I reapply if I'm not selected the first time?

Yes, but please note that there is a cooling-off period of 1 (one) year before reapplying.

6. What would be the duration of the program?

The internship lasts for 1 (one) month. The paralegalship requires a commitment of at least 3 (three) months.

7. Is this a paid opportunity?

Yes. Interns receive a monthly stipend of INR 10,000 (Indian Rupees Ten Thousand) and paralegals receive INR 25,000 (Indian Rupees Twenty-Five Thousand). Additionally, breakfast and lunch are provided by the firm.

8. Are virtual internships or paralegalships allowed?

No, both internships and paralegalships are conducted in person at our office in One BKC, Mumbai.
